Amount in Treasury—Coin. The debt statement for April is as fol-$115,525,213 62; currency, $6,964,694 06; and as the corn prop is generally carried before the cetton drop, it always has to fall back on the latter. Like the borer sinking fulls bonds, $10,000,000 and sinking full back on the latter. Like the borer and shenks poks, it is also extremely difficult to get rid of—in fact, the only remedy suggested appears to be to let the land remain idle for a year, exposed to the sun and rain, which destroys the eggs. Another peculiarity 27 the worm is that in a wet season it attacks the indigmous plants, and in a dry season the exotic varieties 22 each description is under

The Calcutta Englishman says of cotton cultivation in the central provinces of India:

So rapid has been the extension of cotton cultivation in this country that the latest returns from the Board of Trade is longiand show that more cotton has been imported from India during the past year than from her great rival—America. From America, 1,035,811 bales were imported, and from India, 1,485,674. The American bales are heavier than the Indian; but, if equalized, the result is still in favor of India by about 280,000 bales. Another favorable feature in the return for Indian cotton is, that a much larger quantity of it is used on the confinent of Europe, and the demand for this market.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OPFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPRIS, May 4, 1870.

FINANCE.

The movement of cotton, though light, when the stock on hand is taken into consideration, is ample to keep Exchange easy and rates steady on the East. The demand is not active, and is supplied at 1/2 prem.

The demand for money is not so animated as it was a short time ago, nor will it be heavy, we think, for some time to come. Planters are now well supplied with mules and horses, and the only assistance they will hereafter need will be something to eat. Very many of them are able to work through without even this assistance, as there can be no doubt that a good deal of currency is in the intended as good deal of currency is in the inten this assistance, as there can be no doubt that a good deal of currency is in the interior in the hands of the freedmen and the planter.

In Bonds and Stocks there is no movement to note. Some Memphis and Charleston Stock is on the markst, but holders do not seem wilning to sell at buyers' views. There are no buyers of City Bonds, and rates are nominal.

There is some demand for Levee Bonds of Issaquena, Bolivar and Washington counties (Miss.) from tax-payers, and sales have been reported at 62,65c in a small way, but a large lot would not realise over 58,65c.

City Scrip, County Warrants and Tennessee Money are the same as at our last, with some demand for the two latter, but the loss of the damage allegand the damage and coloring the process of cotton cleaning is also stopped, and by this delay the color is injured.
